

Information sheet for participants

Study title:	Learning an alien language
Principal Investigator:	Kenny Smith
Researcher collecting data:	Emily Davis

What is this document? This document explains what kind of study we're doing, what your rights are, and what will be done with your data. You should print this page for your records.

Nature of the study. You are invited to participate in a study which involves learning a miniature alien language, then being tested on your knowledge of the language. You will do this by viewing images with alien words as captions, clicking on images in response to alien words, and eventually typing the alien words yourself. Once you finish, we may have some questions about your experience (e.g., age, gender, language background). Your responses will be recorded. Your session should last for up to 60 minutes. You will be given full instructions shortly.

Compensation. You will be paid $5 for your participation in this study.

Risks and benefits. There are no known risks to participation in this study. Other than the payment mentioned, there will be no tangible benefits to you; however, you will be contributing to our knowledge about language.

Confidentiality and use of data. All the information we collect during the course of the research will be processed in accordance with Data Protection Law. In order to safeguard your privacy, we will never share personal information (like your worker ID) with anyone outside the research team. Your data will be referred to by a unique participant number rather than by name. Please note that we will temporarily collect your worker ID to prevent repeat participation, however we will never share this information with anyone outside the research team. We will store any personal data (i.e., worker ID) using the University of Edinburgh's secure encrypted storage service. The anonymised data collected during this study will be used for research purposes.

What are my data protection rights? The University of Edinburgh is a Data Controller for the information you provide. You have the right to access information held about you. Your right of access can be exercised in accordance with Data Protection Law. You also have other rights including rights of correction, erasure and objection. For more details, including the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner's Office, please visit www.ico.org.uk. Questions, comments and requests about your personal data can also be sent to the University Data Protection Officer at dpo@ed.ac.uk.

Voluntary participation and right to withdraw. Your participation is voluntary, and you may withdraw from the study at any time and for any reason. If you withdraw from the study during or after data gathering, we will delete your data and there is no penalty or loss of benefits to which you are otherwise entitled.
